My dear Friend:

I am writing to enclose this check due on Dandridge account August 31st. I am sorry I am so late, but I know you understand.

Atty Hare called me this morning and said there were two payments due, but he is wrong. On August 8th there was a check sent for Fourteen Dollars ($14.00) to pay the amounts due July 31st and August 15th. This meant the next payment was due August 31st which check I am enclosing now.

Please send me your bill for this work, as I want to close my books as soon as possible, after the 15th when we finish for the season. Don't tell Hare this as we will only have paid him $42.00 by that time, and I think the bill was originally $41.00 and the additional charges made it more. I am really being stuck with this bill, as Dandridge never has anything coming, but that is the baseball.

Thanks for your cooperation. Hope to see you soon,

Very Truly Yours
